12th Annual National Conference

State of Dominicans in the US:
Renewed Vision - Renewed Commitment

December 4- 6, 2009
Disney's Coronado Springs Resort
Walt Disney World®
Florida

The Dominican American National Roundtable (DANR) is pleased to invite you to join us and sponsor our 12th Annual National Conference to be held at the Coronado Springs Resort in Walt Disney World®, Florida.

The DANR is the premier national forum for Dominican Americans in the United States. With members in over 20 U.S. states, and Puerto Rico, the DANR is America's only national voice advocating on behalf of over one million Dominicans living in the U.S. This national gathering is considered to be among the most important events of the year on the Dominican American and Latino calendars. During the Conference, sponsors will be able to take full advantage of the numerous opportunities to market, recruit from, and network with hundreds of Dominican American and Latino professionals, educators, artists, elected officials, community leaders, businesspeople, union leaders, sports celebrities, and college students coming from all over the country, Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic.

The DANR 12th Annual Conference will kick off with a welcome reception on Friday, December 4th at 6:00 PM, followed by a Comedy Night with Freddy Beras-Goyco, an internationally acclaimed Dominican comedian, television personality and author; and an enliven musical performance with traditional merengue played by an animated perico ripiao band.

On Saturday, December 5th, the DANR Conference will begin the day with a National Issue Breakfast to discuss the impact of the U.S. Census 2010 on the Dominican and Latino communities. The breakfast will be followed by workshop tracks on development, education, technology, youth empowerment, health, immigration and other important issues impacting Dominicans, including their incursion in sports and the arts.

At noon, during the Conference's power luncheon, the DANR President will deliver the first State of Dominicans in the US address via radio, television and the Internet.

In the afternoon, thanks to the in-kind donation of the Latino Studies Institute (ILS), the Conference will showcase the World Première of the original film documentary Los Panfleteros de Santiago (Santiago's Pamphleteers), the untold story of courage and heroism of 27 young Dominican rebels (between the ages of 14 and 19) who used flyers to exercise their freedom of speech rights to reclaim their country from dictator Rafael Leonidas Trujillo, who ruled the Dominican Republic with iron fist from 1930 to 1961. All were apprehended, tortured, assassinated and dismembered in a torture chamber infamously known as La 40. Only one of the victims' mothers still lives; she is an eighty years old woman, who seeks justice asking in vain "Where are the graves of her son and Santiago's Pamphleteers?" The premiere will be attended by Pamphleteer survivor Dr. Ramon Antonio Veras (El Negro Veras), who after 40 years of silence has decided to reveal what happened and why the dictator executive the young.

The DANR 12th Annual Conference will feature a National Awards Ceremony on Saturday, December 5, 2009 at 7pm.

The guest speaker will be Prof. Feniosky Pena-Mora, Dean of Columbia University's Fu Foundation School of Engineering & Applied Science.

Other prominent speakers include Dr. Felix V. Matos Rodriguez, President of Hostos Community College of The City University of New York.

After the awards ceremony, the DANR will present a signature Dinner Concert with Dominican music icon, composer and performer Rafael Solano and singer Nini Cafaro who will celebrate with the audience the 40th Anniversary of song Por Amor, an international immortal hymn sung and cherished by people of all ages from every corner of the earth.

There are more activities programmed for the conference, including a dominoes tournament, a special performance for the youth and students, a National Educators' Network forum, VIP receptions, a power Sunday breakfast with Dominican elected officials from across the United States and Puerto Rico, and among many other highlights, a general national DANR membership meeting.

We look forward to seeing you, your family and friends at Walt Disney World® with whom DANR has partnered to provide an unforgettable and rewarding conference weekend experience.

Please contact our Corporate Relations and Development Team at (202) 238-0097 or info@danr.org for more information and sponsorship opportunities. You could also call Dr. Maria Teresa Feliciano, Chair of Fundraising and Institutional Development at 973-432-7688. Thank you very much for your support!

Sincerely,

Néstor Montilla
President
